Technical Publications/Publications techniques

The first of four new CSA Group standards addressing climate change impact on infrastructure in Canada's North is now available for online public and stakeholder review. All members of CSCE are invited to review the media advisory.

Journal of Environmental Engineering and Science

The Institution of Civil Engineers is re-launching the Journal of Environmental Engineering and Science. The Journal of Environmental Engineering and Science is a quarterly publication providing a forum for the dissemination of environmental research, encouraging interdisciplinary research collaboration to address environmental problems. It addresses all aspects of environmental engineering and applied environmental science, but excludes noise, radiation and light. The journal welcomes full research papers, short communications and comprehensive review articles. For more information, please click here.

National Office has negotiated an agreement with the Institution of Civil Engineers whereby CSCE members receive a 25% discount on a range of excellent technical publications.

Please go to <http://csce.ca/publications/tech-publications/> to download the Order Form and to review the books that are available. Please note that these books are warehoused in the US and all prices quoted are in $US.

National Office hopes you will take advantage of this excellent offer provided by our good friends at ICE.

Student Activities/Les activités étudiantes

Have you signed up to be a CSCE student member yet? Student activities are in full swing right now! Get in touch with your local chapter. Click here to find your student chapter president's contact info. Visit the CSCE student page for more information or get in touch with the Chair of the Student Affairs Committee, Charles-Darwin Annan at Charles-Darwin.Annan@gci.ulaval.ca. You'll be hearing more from him about exciting student initiatives as the year progresses and he'd also love to hear your thoughts on the CSCE and student activities.

The University of Toronto, in conjunction with the CSCE Toronto Chapter, held their 5th annual Promise to Future Generations signing ceremony on June 19th, 2013, with over 30 new signatories from local Universities and industry. This initiative, created by students, encourages signees to look beyond the "me" and "now" to consider the needs of future generations. Visit <http://www.ptfg.org/> for more information and contact Amie (yp@csce.ca) if you are interested in starting a chapter at your school.

Avez-vous signé pour être un membre étudiant de la CSCE? Les activités étudiantes sont en plein essor en ce moment! Contact votre section locale. Cliquez ici pour trouver les coordonnées de votre président chapitre étudiant. Pour plus d'information, visitez la page web étudiante de la SCGC ou entrez en contact avec le président du comité des affaires étudiantes, Charles-Darwin Annan à Charles-Darwin.Annan @ gci.ulaval.ca. Tout au long de l'année, le président du comité des affaires étudiantes vous tiendra au courant des diverses activités organisées par la SCGC. N'hésitez pas à lui envoyer vos idées et commentaires afin que l'année à venir soit des plus intéressantes.

L'Université de Toronto, en collaboration avec le chapitre de Toronto de la SCGC, a tenu sa 5e cérémonie annuelle de signature de la Promesse envers les générations à venir, le 19 juin 2013, avec plus de 30 signataires de l'université et de l'industrie. Cette initiative étudiante invite les signataires à regarder au-delà du « moi » et du « maintenant » et à tenir compte des besoins des générations à venir. Visitez le site <http://www.ptfg.org/> pour obtenir plus de renseignements et adressez-vous à Amie (yp@csce.ca) si vous souhaitez créer un chapitre dans votre institution.
