

Peter CALCETAS

P.Eng., M. Eng., MBA, FCSCE, LEED GA

Peter Calcetas is a bilingual Professional Engineer with over 25 years of experience in sustainable infrastructure, structural engineering, research, product development, operations and applied sciences in the materials, building science and construction industries. Peter has been working with Ultra High Performance Concrete (UHPC) for over fifteen years, advancing the technology through product development, design, manufacturing, commercialization, and collaboration with several transportation authorities and stakeholders. Mr. Calcetas is the secretary of the CSA A23.1-19's Annex U. Peter is a Fellow of the Canadian Society of Civil Engineering, currently serving as the Regional Vice President for Ontario with the CSCE.